Article 5 – Purpose

(See instructions. This form does not contain language needed to obtain a tax-exempt status on the state or federal level.)

The nonprofit corporation is organized for the following purpose or purposes:
 The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, literary and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"). The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to receive and maintain a fund or funds and, subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth hereafter, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, literary and scientific purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations described in IRC Section 501(c) (3) and exempted from taxation under IRC Section 501 (a) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

The following text area may be used to include any additional language or provisions that may be needed to obtain tax-exempt status.

Supplemental Provisions/Information
(See instructions.)

Text Area: [The attached addendum, if any, is incorporated herein by reference.]

Article 6 LIMITATIONS

A. No part of the net earnings or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, director, trustee, or officer of the Corporation or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 5 herein. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene (including the publication or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the Corporation's purposes set forth in Article 5 herein.

B. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of IRC Section 501(c) (3), or to the federal government or a state or local government for a public purpose. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

C. The Corporation is intended to be an organization described in IRC Section 509(a)(1).

Article 7 DURATION. The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

Article 8 BYLAWS

The initial Bylaws of the Corporation shall be adopted by its Board of Directors, and the power to alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws, or adopt new Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall not have the power to alter, amend and/or replace such Bylaws in a manner which is inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation as set forth in Article 5 herein. The Board of Directors shall not engage, participate, or intervene in any activity or transaction which would result in the loss by the Corporation of its status as an exempt organization under IRC Section 501(c) (3).

Article 9 LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY OF DIRECTORS

A Director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the individual's capacity as a Director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions which are not in good faith which constitute a breach of duty of the Director to the Corporation or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for any transaction from which the Director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the Director's office, or (iv) for acts or omissions for which the liability of a Director is expressly provided by the Texas Business Organizations Code (the "TBOC") or any other statute of the State of Texas. The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation and to purchase liability insurance for those persons as, and to the extent, permitted by the TBOC or any other statute of the State of Texas or the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Article 10 REFERENCES IN OTHER ARTICLES.

All references in this Certificate to statutes, regulations, or other sources of legal authority shall refer to the authorities cited, or their successors, as they may be amended from time to time.
