

DSC Foundation Global Care Program Grant Application

The DSC Foundation Global Care Program provides financial relief to individuals or their families when those individuals suffer serious injury or death during the course of, or related to, providing services that ensure conservation of wildlife and associated habitats. Such individuals may include professional hunters, biologists, game wardens, and others who put their life at risk when engaging in hunting and conservation activities. To be eligible for relief consideration, the person must be a member in good standing of a relevant professional peer organization in the state or country in which they are injured or killed.

1. Name of Individual Professional injured or slain:

2. Description of incident (include nature of injuries to individual professional)

3. Location of incident: (Include country and hunting area):

4. Name of Professional peer organization (state or country in which incident occurred)(provide copy of document registering individual with peer organization):

5. Purpose for which the funds will be used (include type expenses, i.e. medical, income replacement, education, spousal/children support):